2015 DAKOTA SHY MCKENNA'S SAUVIGNON BLANC

From carefully selected vineyards, produced in very small quantities and artfully crafted to reflect a sense of place, Dakota Shy wines are a testament to Napa Valley's reputation for producing the greatest Cabernet Sauvignon-based wines in the world.

"Complex aromas of citrus, mineral, melon, herb and golden hay. Lush, rich texture framed with balancing acidity. Has weight and power while remaining bright and refreshing. Citrus, slate and floral notes linger on the long finish."

-Tom Garrett, Winemaker
